

Sacred and Secret Truths – Hidden In Clay Pots

It seems as if God gives us hints each day about what he'd like us to do.

If you look closely around you, or if you listen carefully to what a friend says,
I bet you will recognize a potential hint
as to what God would like you to do.

Listen carefully. Observe.

God is pointing the direction.

Christopher de Vinck

Yet when I am among mature believers, I do speak with words of wisdom, but not the kind of wisdom that belongs to this world or to the rulers of this world, who are soon forgotten. No, the wisdom we speak of is the mystery of God – his plan that was previously hidden, even though he made it for our ultimate glory before the world began. But the rulers of this world have not understood it; if they had, they would not have crucified our glorious Lord. That is what the Scriptures mean when they say, “No eye has seen, no ear has heard, and no mind has imagined what God has prepared for those who love him.” But it was to us that God revealed these things by his Spirit. For his Spirit searches out everything and shows us God’s deep secrets. No one can know a person’s thoughts except that person’s own spirit, and no one can know God’s thoughts except God’s own Spirit. And we have received God’s Spirit (not the world’s spirit), so we can know the wonderful things God has freely given us. When we tell you these things, we do not use words that come from human wisdom. Instead, we speak words given to us by the Spirit, using the Spirit’s words to explain spiritual truths... For, “Who can know the Lord’s thoughts? Who knows enough to teach him? But we understand these things, for we have the mind of Christ.

1 Corinthians 2:6-15 NLT

Doing what God requires is a sign of superior wisdom.

God requires that you work hard to your calling without worrying about what anyone else is doing.

Martin Luther

Live life, then with a due sense of responsibility, not as men who do not know the meaning and purpose of life but as those who do.
Ephesians 5:15, Phillips

The place God calls you to is the place where your deep gladness
and the world’s deep hunger meet.

Frederick Buechner